13. Pounamu

Unique taonga crafted with aroha and karakia by Yogamani;
"Some years ago I had an opportunity to work alongside a well respected Maori carver. From there my passion to work with Pounamu has grown and deepened. Traditionally Pounamu was used to heal and protect, as well as a currently in trading allowing different iwi/hapu & cultures to connect. Today in Te Ao Hurihuri (the ever changing world) it is good to maintain these traditions of healing and connection. Living in such a multi cultural society it excites me to create a link these Taonga. It is an honour for me to be part of this renaissance."

17. Tailored Audition Workshop with Colin Moy

An intensive one-hour, one on one, tailored audition workshop to be redeemed when you need it i.e. the next time you have an important audition.

The point of the session will be to ensure you are 100% prepared for that particular audition.

"In my own experience, both as an actor and casting director, the people who stand out in auditions are the ones who arrive confident, have made strong choices and can take direction – basically the ones who are the most prepared. Naturally this doesn't necessarily mean you'll get the part every time, but you won't be forgotten."

Colin is a freelance actor, writer and director who has worked professionally in film and theatre for the last 15 years. His casting experience includes two years as a reader for Diana Rowan and two years as a casting director for Central Casting.
